ALBILAL Group Joins GIX as gold sponsor

AlBilal Group has joined recently GIX as gold sponsor.

AlBilal Group Construction Company is an Iraq-based company that was established in 1993 in response to the emerging needs for re-construction of Iraq infrastructure. Specialized in civil and electro-mechanical construction, AlBilal Group is one of the largest construction companies in Iraq with a successful track record in construction, rehabilitation, maintenance and commissioning of power plants, power substations, transmission lines, and water supply, distribution, treatment, and waste water plants.

Since its establishment, AlBilal Group has constructed and rehabilitated more than 36 power substations in size for diverse clients including Project and Contracting Office (PCO) of the United States Government, and US & European-based engineering and construction companies such as Washington International Inc. (WIL), Black & Veatch (B&V), Bechtel, Odebrecht, ABB, and Siemens, to name a few.

AlBilal Group has recently opened additional regional offices, establishing its presence in most of Iraqi governorates, and in every major business center in Iraq. AlBilal Group has also regional offices in Amman, Jordan, Abu Dhabi, UAE, and in Alexandria, Egypt that not only provide key management, training and support to field operations in Iraq, but have also enhanced the company's procurement and construction activities in the vibrant economy of the Middle East.
