

Press Release

FOR RELEASE
9 July, 2007

Al Aqariya news joins GIX as media supporter

Al Aqariya news establishment has joined the Gulf Iraqi Expo (GIX) as media supporter to the event.

The company was launched in early 2005 and become one of the reputable companies in media and economy, be they domestic or global, through its successful publications that address economy and real estates issues. In addition, it has exclusively provided media coverage for all of the recent regional and international activities in Qatar, Bahrain, Saudi Arabia, China and Korea.

Al Aqariya news is keen to address issues of real estate investment by covering domestic and global real estate news objectively and comprehensibly aiming at stabilizing property market and attracting more foreign investments to UAE and the Gulf region as well as communicating with the foreign real estate world and highlighting the Arab Emirates' experience in the industry. In addition, the company is highly active in exhibitions with large number of subscribers who participate actively in these events.

Utilizing excellent tools and wide business network, Al Aqariya news is considered an ideal media supporter to GIX, the Iraqi Trade Ministry's first trade and industrial expo in the Gulf region.

GIX will be held in the Bahraini capital, Manama on November 1-3, 2007, officially organized by I- Vision for Public Relations and Media and the State Company for Iraqi Fairs - a subsidiary of the Iraqi Trade Ministry.