FOR RELEASE
2 Oct, 2007

The Pakistani Minister of Foreign Trade heads a delegation to GIX

The Pakistani Minister of Foreign Trade, Mr. Tareq Ikram, will head the Pakistani delegation to attend the Gulf Iraqi Expo GIX as the organizers were informed by the Pakistani Embassy in Bahrain.

The Minister requested setting agenda to meet the Iraqi Ministers during the first and second days of the exposition, the organizers will arrange for these meetings in coordinate with the Iraqi Trade Ministry.

It is worth noting that the Pakistani pavilion in the expo will include many enterprises; Rice exporters association of Pakistan, S.A Brothers (Pvt. Ltd.) for Air conditioners, A. Essak & Sons for home supplies, Shield Corporation Ltd and Gresham's Eastern (Pvt. Ltd.) among other enterprises.

Although GIX will be held in the Gulf basically to reinforce the Iraqi-Gulf relations, an increasing number of international companies are registering to participate in the exhibitions since it will provide valuable investment opportunities for all investing companies worldwide, especially GIX enjoys higher credibility than other events which are held under the name of Iraq without the Iraqi government's authorization.

Well-arranged bilateral meetings will take place between the participating companies and the Iraqi Ministries to discuss potential cooperation. The United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) will supervise these meetings during the event's 3- days, from 1st until 3rd November, 2007 in the Bahraini Capital, Manama.

Countries participating in GIX:

France, The Untied Kingdom, The United States, Pakistan, Brazil, India, Russia, The Republic of Czech, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain, UAE, Jordan, Oman, Lebanon, Syria, Egypt and Tunisia.
