

Press Release

FOR RELEASE
2 August, 2007

Al Warka is gold sponsor and the official bank of GIX

Al Warka Bank for Finance and Investment has joined GIX as gold sponsor since this big event will bring the Iraqi officials and businessmen together with reputable companies from the Gulf and worldwide.

In addition, the bank has signed an agreement with GIX organizers to be the logistic partner and the official bank of the event.

The agreement was signed by the CEO of I-vision for Public Relations and Media from the organizers part and by the Executive Manger Shaymaa Sadi Taqi from the bank part.

Al Warka bank, through its branches throughout Iraq, will provide the Iraqi businessmen who are interested in attending the event with the registration applications. The bank will also offer the registered individuals credit cards with 30% discount.

With its most efficient team, the bank is one of the pioneer banks in Iraq in the finance and investment services. Al Warka Bank works within the highest standards, using the most updated techniques of investment methods which help the customer in taking the right financial decision in the right timing.

In addition to the credit cards (Visa cards), the bank will launch Western Union services worldwide and internet banking services also ATM services starting from the first of next September through its financial and investment department –HQ.

The organizers will provide the bank with promotional material and a specially- programmed software to be used for attendees registration.