The Iraqi Oil Ministry joins GIX

The Iraqi Ministry of Oil confirmed its participation in the first Gulf Iraqi Expo (GIX).

The Ministry which will be represented by a highly official delegation will deliver a speech in the event's conference and will have a complimentary booth in the expo to showcase the ministry's activities and projects as well as answer any queries in detail.

Moreover, the event will entail bilateral meetings organized by the United Nations (UN). These bilateral meetings are designed for the enterprises who desire to talk directly to any of the Iraqi ministries attending GIX or with any other investment companies to open potential channels of cooperation and joint ventures.
